About Young Detroit Builders

YouthBuild Detroit operated by Young Detroit Builders (YDB) has been offering a comprehensive program of education, support services, counseling, leadership development, job and life skills and on-the-job training in residential construction since 1996. Students may earn AmeriCorps educational awards for college and national construction certifications. Giving back to the community is a major focus of YDB. Students complete community service in addition to their construction work. Upon completion of the program, job placement and follow-up program assistance is provided.
